

IZZO LAUNCH MATE LAUNCH MONITOR

Item#: A99854

Description :

Take your game to new heights with the Launch Mate Personal Launch Monitor, a compact training tool that uses Doppler radar technology to accurately measure key performance metrics including total distance, carry distance, swing speed, ball speed, and smash factor. Featuring clear audible distance readouts on every shot, selectable club and loft angles, a measuring range of 30–420 yards, and a compact design for easy storage, the Launch Mate is ideal for indoor practice sessions or range work. A hard-shell carry case and four AA batteries are included so you can start improving your game right away.

Order Notes: Stock product is not returnable.
