Description :

The Columbia polo is designed with OMNI-WICK technology, which helps move moisture away from the skin to keep you dry and comfortable throughout the day. Its breathable, lightweight construction provides lasting comfort during active wear, making it a great choice for golf, outdoor activities, or casual outings. Built for both durability and performance, this polo delivers a balance of functionality and style. An all-over floral print adds a fresh, eye-catching look, while the logo neck tape provides a subtle branded detail for an added touch of refinement.
