Description :

Improve your short game with the IZZO Tru-Spin Soft Flight Practice Golf Balls. This 12-pack of foam practice balls is designed to provide instant visual feedback on spin velocity and direction, helping golfers develop greater shot control and consistency around the greens. The unique two-tone color design enhances spin visibility, while the dimpled surface simulates the flight and action of a real golf ball at reduced distances. Constructed from soft, durable foam, these practice balls are safe for indoor and outdoor use, making them ideal for year-round training.
