Description :

Improve ball striking and consistency with the IZZO Golf Sure Stance Ball Position Golf Trainer. Designed for both left- and right-handed golfers, this training aid helps ensure proper ball positioning for every club in your bag. Clearly marked foot placement indicators make setup simple and accurate, while the swing-out positioning arm provides a visual reference for correct ball alignment. A built-in flat edge serves as an alignment guide to help aim at your target, and tee holes on each end allow the trainer to be securely anchored during practice. Ideal for golfers looking to build confidence and develop proper setup fundamentals.
