Description:

Step onto the green with timeless elegance and unmatched comfort. The MC70 Spikeless Golf Shoes draw inspiration from the iconic 1970s adidas golf shoes, blending classic design with modern technology for a shoe that's both stylish and functional. Crafted for those who appreciate the finer details in performance footwear, these shoes are part of the Modern Classic collection, celebrating a legacy of innovation.

The shoe's leather upper is not just about aesthetics but functionality too, offering a durable, waterproof experience that keeps you comfortable in all conditions. The spikeless outsole delivers stability and grip on turf, making every swing and step confident and assured. The regular fit ensures that these shoes mould perfectly to your feet, while the lace closure keeps them securely in place.

Experience the benefits of Lightstrike technology, redefining lightweight cushioning while maintaining superb responsiveness. Additionally, adidas Boost technology provides incredible energy return and instant comfort with each step, ensuring you can focus solely on your game. Whether you're out for a casual round or competing, these shoes are designed to support your performance on the course.
