Description:

Step onto the green with confidence in your MC70 Golf Shoes, where modern sophistication meets timeless performance. Inspired by adidas' 1970s golf shoes, these shoes bring a classic touch with a contemporary twist, making every swing as stylish as it is effective.

These golf shoes feature a leather upper paired with synthetic materials, delivering a balance of durability and comfort. The replaceable spike outsole ensures you maintain a firm grip on turf, providing the ultimate stability for your game. With adidas' BOOST technology, experience endless energy return and instant comfort in every step, keeping you energized from the first tee to the final hole.

Lightstrike technology redefines cushioning, offering lightweight support that doesn't compromise on responsiveness. The waterproof construction ensures your feet remain dry, allowing you to focus solely on your performance. Whether you're a seasoned pro or a weekend golfer, the MC70 Golf Shoes are your key to unlocking exceptional play.
