

SUNICE ELEMENT SHIELD PERFORMANCE FULL ZIP HOODIE

Item#: S77031

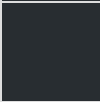

Description :

This versatile hooded layer provides all-season performance with lightweight comfort and protection. Featuring UPF 50+ sun protection, the fabric helps shield against harmful UV rays while remaining highly breathable and comfortable for use as an outer or inner layer. The lightweight double-knit stretch fabric offers flexibility and mobility, while four-needle flat-lock stitching enhances durability and comfort. Additional features include zippered chest and hand pockets, a laser-cut chest pocket with decorative welding, and an adjustable hood for a customized fit.
